INTRODUCTION

At the time this is written it is about ten days since the Old Year passed into history and the New Year started on its career. We have no way of knowing what the New Year will bring us, but we can learn much from the events of the past that will help us in meeting the duties of the future. This is one of the great benefits to be derived from the study of history. The past year has been an eventful one in many ways. Our own country experienced the worst floods that have been known for years. Other places, notably Palestine, have suffered from earthquakes. Comparative peace has reigned over the world, although civil wars and near approaches to international strifes have been with us. In all of these things we can look in faith to the Creator and Ruler of the Universe who will guard and protect His people at all times.

The Year Book deals particularly with the history of the Mennonite Church during the past year. Among the outstanding features of the work for 1927 are the building activities. Aside from the new churches that were built in a number of our home congregations, we find that our missions carried out perhaps the most extensive building program in the history of the Church. The largest of these buildings is the Hospital and Sanitarium at La Junta, Colo. In our foreign missions we find that three new churches were completed and dedicated in South America, and the new Hospital in India was completed and occupied. Among our home missions we find new buildings erected at the following places: Portland, Oreg., Detroit, Mich., Peoria, Ill., and Mill Run, an outlying district of Altoona, Pa. Pictures and descriptions of a number of these buildings will be found elsewhere in the Year Book.

The meeting of General Conference was one of the outstanding events, having a Church-wide influence, of the year. The attendance was the largest in the history of this organization and the meetings were noted for the spirit of harmony and devotion that prevailed. Separate reports are published of this meeting which may be obtained by writing to the Mennonite Publishing House, Scottdale, Pa. Reports of the Annual Mission Board Meeting, held at Milford, Nebr., may also be had.

The statistical matter for this year has been carefully revised according to information furnished us by many of our brethren from different parts of the country. No doubt, there are still some errors, but we have made an honest effort to bring the lists and tables up to date. It will be noted that the total membership of the Mennonite Church is now 46,197. This is not a large growth when compared with last year's figures, but we are glad that the Lord is still blessing the work and that we are not a diminishing body of people. The preliminary report of the United States religious census, which was conducted during the past year, gave the membership for the United States at 33,943 members, while the Year Book reports 40,816. The difference evidently was caused by the failure of a considerable number of our congregations to send in a report to the Director of Census, who, accordingly, was obliged to omit them in his report. We believe the Year Book report to be more nearly accurate. We want to thank all who sent in material for these statistical reports, as well as those who contributed articles.

What will be the record of the coming year? That will be determined largely by the measure of our consecrated effort in the service of our King. May we all resolve to give nothing but our best for the Master in 1928.

REPORT OF THE WORK DONE BY THE GENERAL MISSION BOARD DURING THE YEAR 1927

By S. E. Allgyer, Field Worker

Directing the missionary and charitable activities of the Church since they have developed to the present proportion is no small affair. The responsibilities of the Board possibly are much greater than many realize. The establishing of missions both in the home and foreign field; the erecting, changing, and caring for institutions; the securing of suitable workers and placing them properly; the receiving and disbursing of funds for the various activities, the handling of annuities and endowments, need the most careful consideration and direction. Therefore, those directly responsible need and appreciate the prayers of the Church in behalf of this work.

The Board is composed of about fifty-six brethren, selected from different parts of the Church. They meet annually in a General Board Meeting. However, the greater part of the work depends on the Executive and Mission Committees, especially on the Executive Committee which meets about once a month. The Field Worker of the Board meets with them. During the year a change was made in the Executive Committee, Bro. Levi Mumaw taking the place of Bro. D. G. Lapp as Vice President.

The Board has nothing to boast of in its work during the year 1927, but on the other hand it has much to be grateful for because of the loyal support received from the Church in both workers and means that has enabled it to carry on the work already established, and also make some necessary changes during a period of time when the financial condition was not so encouraging, and therefore meant sacrifice on the part of the donors. But even with this financial depression we are glad to report an increase in missionary funds as well as in annuities and endowments. The Missionary offerings for the year ending Dec. 1, 1927, were not as large as during the year ending Dec. 1, 1926, but figuring on a five-year basis the offerings this year were $22,000 more than the average in the last five years. The annuities sent in during the year ending Dec. 1, 1927, were $21,000 or $7,750 more than any previous year during the five-year period. The amount of annuities now in the hands of the Board, Dec. 1, 1927, is $105,525, and the amount of endowments invested at the above date is $268,167. But with this increase, for which we are truly grateful, we should look for still greater things. In our humble judgment we have not reached the limit as a church, and will not reach it until all comply with the Scriptural method of giving.

During the year two new workers were sent to India; namely, Milton and Esther Vogt. Mary Good, who was home on furlough, also returned to the field. These, with the twenty-five workers on the field, make a total of twenty-eight who receive full support, besides the children and the three missionaries that are home on furlough. During the year two of the South American workers came home on furlough, leaving fourteen on the field besides the children. No new workers were sent to this field this year, but preparations are now being made to send new recruits to South America. The work apparently is increasing in both of these fields. New buildings and equipment have been added which enable the workers to go forward with greater zeal and enthusiasm.

Possibly the greatest undertaking for the Board and the Church during the year 1927 is the erection of a hospital with a sanitarium annex at La Junta, Colo., which is nearing completion. This project also provides greater facilities for our nurses' training school. This institution has been built according to the requirements of the state of Colorado, thus enabling our nurses to complete their course in this institution. I trust we all appreciate the advantages of this movement.

The Peoria Mission has been greatly improved during the last year. The old residence, with the living quarters above the hall, was sold and a new site purchased. With the faithful service of the superintendent, Bro. Earl Miller, and Bro. E. H. Oyer of Roanoke, Ill., and other Illinois brethren a new church, 28x46, has been built. Close beside the Church a commodious house has been built for the workers. Dedication services were held on Christmas day. We are also very glad to state that this change has been made with very little added expense to the Board or any one else, and certainly is a great improvement.

In Kansas City a very promising work has been started by the workers there, in a new district called Midway, that was without Church privileges. This additional work has greatly increased the responsibility of the workers. They need your prayers that many more souls may hear the Gospel.

At the Children's Home, Kansas City, Kans., some changes were made in the staff of workers. New laundry equipment has also been added to this institution. This was greatly needed and will lighten the burden for the workers.

Chicago, Fort Wayne, and Lima, have experienced very little changes during the year. The regular routine of work has been carried forward, with encouraging features, and sometimes discouraging ones, but a number of souls have been saved and added to the Church.

In Canton Bro. C. C. King was transferred to Detroit, Mich., where a new church has been built under the direction of the Indiana-Michigan District Mission Board with encouraging reports. Bro. Ezra A. Shank and wife have assumed the responsibilities of superintendent and matron, at Canton, with Sister Ella Smucker and Bro. Elvin Snyder assisting in the work. Aside from the regular work a Sunday school has been operated in a foreign district by the church in Canton. The results have been encouraging.

At the Orphans' Home, West Liberty, Ohio, some changes were made in the line of workers on account of failing health. Some had to retire and new ones were added. It also became necessary to put a new furnace in the Girls' Orphanage Building. A new vacuum steam plant was installed at an expense of $1400. This is a great improvement over the old hot air furnace in this building where the hospital is also located.

We are also glad to report the sale of one of the eighty-acre farms donated to the Board some years ago in the state of Illinois. The donor having passed to his eternal reward, the farm has been sold and the proceeds will be placed in the endowment fund.

Permit me to say that the annuity and endowment plan afford great opportunities for those that are blessed with means and have a desire to do something in a very practical way to help the cause of Christ. And we are glad to note that a number are taking advantage of the opportunity. Any one desiring more information may notify the writer at West Liberty, Ohio, or write to Bro. V. E. Reiff, Box 576, Elkhart, Indiana.

The Home for the Aged at Eureka, Ill., has also made some changes in workers and a number of inmates have passed on. A much needed addition to the barn has been made. One of the recent disappointments occurred during the cold weather in December when the furnace gave way and it became necessary to install a new furnace at an expense of $800.

The cottages in connection with the Home Mission, Chicago, that were held by the Board were sold for the sum of $1900. The proceeds were placed in the endowment fund of the Home Mission, Chicago, Ill.

The Los Angeles Mission Church has a great field and we are glad to note that the work is being extended by holding street meetings, Sunday schools, etc. We trust that the good work may continue.

The Mennonite churches of France, Alsace, and Lorraine, that were very seriously affected during the late war, at a recent conference appointed Bro. Pierre Sommer as a traveling evangelist to give full time in assisting the weaker churches that are greatly in need of help. The French churches have made an appeal to the General Board to assist them in supporting Bro. Sommer. The Board has given some support and is ready to forward all money sent in for that purpose. You who are interested please take notice.

The Toronto Mennonite Mission, functioning indirectly under the General Board and directly under the Ontario Board of Mennonite Finance, is filling a place in spreading the Gospel, and we appreciate the very fine spirit manifested in its coöperation in our missionary activities.

We are also glad to note the decided forward movements in the missions at Portland, Oreg., Wichita, Kans., Hannibal, Mo., Altoona, Pa., and other missionary activities under the direction of local churches and district boards.

We also recognize and appreciate the coöperation of the Eastern Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities, the Franconia Mission Board, the Virginia Board of Missions and Charities, the Pacific Coast Mission Board and other district boards in our foreign work, as well as the work that is being done in the home field by these organizations, both city and rural. May the Lord richly bless and sustain every activity of the Church in every place, and may all keenly feel the responsibility of doing what we can, as Mary of old. Jesus said, "She hath done what she could." What a great commendation if the same could be said of us! Will we do our best?

West Liberty, Ohio.

OUR MEDICAL STATION IN INDIA

By Mary A. Wenger

Our medical station is located a little way north of the town of Dhamtari. It is about a mile from the Sunderganj compound and the church. Since the greater part of the Christian community at Dhamtari live near the church they have about a mile to the hospital. Many of them come to the hospital when they need physical aid, yet they constitute only a small per cent of our number of patients. Many of the business men of Dhamtari, too, come to us, but I think by far the greater number of patients come from the villages surrounding us.

The buildings which we now have at the medical station are: A bungalow, where the doctor and his family and the nurse in charge of the hospital are located; an old hospital building which has served its day as such and is now used as an additional ward; a new hospital building including operating room, offices, laboratory, examining, dressing, and dispensing rooms; an European ward where the missionaries as well as other European people are cared for when they are ill; an old line of wards, consisting of six rooms, which was built when the old hospital was built; and a new line of wards built next to the new hospital. This is called our surgical ward because we aim to use it for surgical cases. Then we also have homes for those who help us at the medical station, such as an evangelist's house, a nurse or compound's house, and a house for the cook and other helpers.

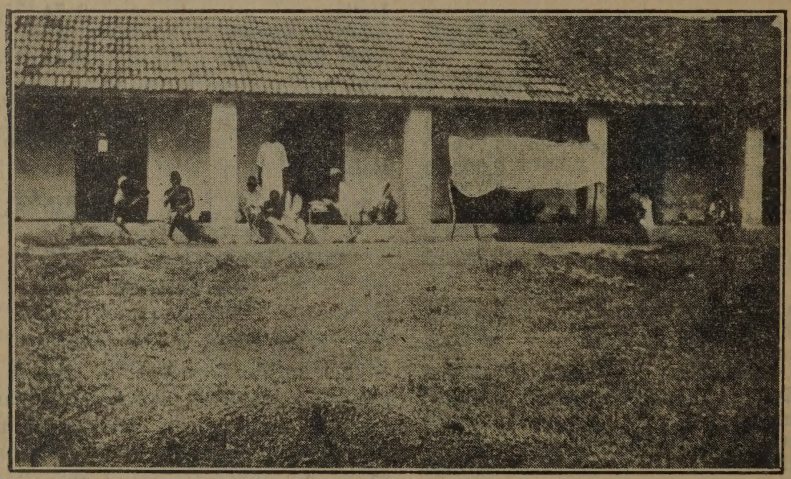
The new Hospital is quite an improvement over the old one. It is much larger and will be more modern in equipment when it is completed. It is a sort of double building, one side for the men and one for the women. It was built in this way because of the difference in social standards in India, where many of the women are not permitted to go out into society and therefore can not come to a hospital where both men and women are present. Now that we have a part especially built for women they come more readily.

This new building is now in use but is far from being properly equipped. Only the equipment of the old hospital has been moved into it. Since it is a double building it will require much more to furnish it, and, besides, some of the old furniture should be replaced, as it is about worn out. The old hospital is equipped for running water. This alone is quite an advantage. We also hope some time to have a better lighting system and other necessities, such as an X ray and a better set of sterilizers. It is only with your help and coöperation that we can make our new hospital building what it should be and can give our Indian people, as well as our missionaries and their families, the help that they so much need.



Indian Wards in the New Hospital in India

Our patients' rooms or wards are separate buildings as I have already stated. They are built thus for several reasons. Perhaps the greatest reason is because in so hot a country a two or three-story building gets too hot. The rooms would be too crowded and there would not be enough air space.

Our European ward is a square building with two large rooms for patients, two bath rooms, a diet kitchen and two porches. The rooms are so arranged that either side can be isolated so that in case of a contagious disease both sides can be used without endangering either patient.

Our Indian wards are what we call "family wards." They are so arranged that a family can live in them. The rooms are all built in line with a long and wide front porch as you see in the picture. Each room is built for one or two patients and some member of his family. Back of each room is a small covered porch and an open compound, or enclosed court, in which there is a place provided for cooking and also a bathing place. Each patient and family have their own cooking arrangement. This is necessary because of the caste system which prevails in India. Patients who belong to different castes could not eat together, neither could we or any caste member cook food for all of them. Therefore each one cooks his own and, as a rule, when they understand they are quite willing to follow orders.

Among our patients you will find the rich and the poor, the educated and ignorant, Hindus, Mohammedans and Christians. They all have confidence that we can help them physically. Will you not pray that we may also be used to point them to Christ, who can heal their soul's diseases? Our one aim in the medical work of India is to win souls. We, therefore, do evangelistic work along with our medical work. We have an evangelist living at the Medical Station, who gives his time to work among the patients. We also have a weekly prayer meeting held on the hospital porch, where all those of our patients who are able may come. This is an interesting meeting. We often have more Hindus and Mohammedans than Christian present at this meeting. They are interested and attentive listeners.

A Hindu came to us with an infected foot. It was in such a bad condition that we had to amputate it a little above the ankle. He now has an artificial leg. This man is willing to admit that it was through the help of our God alone that his life was spared but he has not yet become willing to accept Him as his personal Savior. Will you in a definite way remember the medical work of India in your prayers? We need your help to make the work a success.

IMPORTANT FEATURES OF THE FORWARD MOVEMENT OF OUR MISSION WORK IN SOUTH AMERICA DURING 1927

By D. Parke Lantz

Renting a house to be used as an Orphanage was a step which the Mission was compelled to take in order to give accomodation to more orphans, the majority of whom are Sunday school pupils of members, or converts of our Mission.

November 1, there were fifteen boys and girls, from three to nine years old, receiving shelter, food, clothing, and training in a Christian Home conducted by Sisters Hallman and Gamber in Trenque Lauquen, F. C. O.

The houses that can be rented are not suitable for housing boys and girls, the rent is high considering the poor accomodations and even then we do not know how long we will be permitted to occupy the present quarters.

The missionaries and the General Board, through the Executive Committee, have deemed it advisable to lay the need of an orphanage building before the Church, and the various district treasurers as well as Bro. V. E. Reiff, Treasurer of the General Board, are receiving donations to be used for that purpose.

Sister Santina Cavadore was engaged as a teacher in our Mission school and Summer Daily Vacation Bible schools conducted at several of our Stations. She is a devoted Christian girl and a graduate of the Normal School of Pehuajó where she received the highest grades and the approval of the School Board.

South America needs teachers, who by their lives and teaching, may point the young children to Jesus Christ as their Savior and Friend. You can do much by supporting with your means and your prayers the South American Mission School teachers.

Installing a press and outfit for printing Spanish literature was one of the important features of the forward work of our mission because the scarcity of evangelical literature in that language, not only in the Argentine, but also in all the Spanish speaking countries makes it very difficult for missionaries to supply the needs of the converts and members in that line.

The present outfit has been printing monthly 10,000 copies of "The True Way" since it has been installed, also thousands of tracts and booklets. A translation of The Mennonite Confession of Faith, made by Bro. Hershey, assisted by Juan Michelli and others, has been printed in booklet form for distribution where needed.

Several false sects with erroneous teachings are very busy distributing their booklets and tracts and shall we who have the TRUTH be hindered in sowing the seed which is the Word of God, because of the lack of means to carry it on?

We are willing to distribute more of "The True Way" if you or your Sunday school class will provide the $4 per thousand needed for their publication. Will you pray about this?

The Dedication of three new Church Buildings, together with the homes for the missionaries in Tres Lomas, Santa Rosa, and Carlos Casares, has been made possible by the generous response of the North American Church to the appeal sent from South America and endorsed by the Mission Boards of the Mennonite Church in the United States and Canada.

We praise God for such a hearty and whole-souled response of the brotherhood, and for the increased interest in the Gospel message in South America, since these new churches have been dedicated to God.

The congregations in Madero, America, and Bragado are still worshiping in rented buildings, but are hoping, in the future, by the grace of God and with your help, to worship in buildings owned by the Mennonite Church.

The Weekly Offering System was adopted at the Fifth Annual Conference of the Argentine Mennonite Church held at Tres Lomas, F. C. O., to take the place of the monthly offering which had been in operation up to that time.

Systematic giving according to I. Cor. 16:1, 2; and Mal. 3:10, cheerful giving according to II. Cor. 9:6-8, and the blessedness of giving according to Acts 20:35, have been ehphasized in the special meetings held for our members and they have been doing very nobly. Last year the total amount given for all purposes was $1200.00, and this year (1927) this amount was given in six months. This means an average giving of 12 U. S. dollars per member. There is a special fund for each week's offering. One week it is for the Orphans, another week for the Publication Fund, another still for the poor, and the rest for local expenses and the Church Building Fund.

Will you, dear reader, pray that these important features in the forward movement of our mission work in South America may prove to be a blessing to many souls, may be to the honor and glory of our Lord and Savior, and may be strong aid in the upbuilding of His Church until that day in the which He shall come for His own?

WORK OF THE EASTERN MENNONITE BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHARITIES DURING 1927

By J. Paul Sauder

The official organ of the Eastern Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities is the Missionary Messenger. The first issue of this little paper was published April 15, 1924. At first it was published quarterly but since 1925 has been published monthly. The publication of this paper seems to rank in importance with any other single act of the Board. That it is a steady, regular piece of work does not at all detract from the importance of the work. The purpose of the paper is well told in the first issue. "We believe it is a step forward if all of us can regularly get a little clearer glimpse of the harvest field through the pages of the Messenger." Thus the paper has become virtually a newspaper, specializing in home missionary news and other news in the light of the needs of the constituency. The spreading of missionary news has been one of the outstanding pieces of constructive work done this year.

The several items of work accomplished will be taken up chronologically. Thus reference to some matters will be made more than once, especially in cases where action progressed through several months. The article will, therefore, be in parts so that action may have the time perspective.

January

Last January the representatives of the Eastern Mennonite Board met with representatives of the Virginia Mission Board to discuss ways and means of taking care of the needs of a small congregation at Washington, D. C. Owing to the heavy financial obligations of the Virginia Board, they offered the work at Washington to the Eastern Board. The congregation at that place expressed a willingness to affiliate with the Lancaster Conference if the Conference wished to take over the work.

During the month a semiannual meeting of the Associated Sewing Circles of the Lancaster Conference was held at the Chestnut Street Church, Lancaster. The work at Conowingo, Md., was started. A giant dam was built there during the last year. Thousands of men worked there and would have been, in all likelihood, without the Gospel if it had not been for the efforts of the Lancaster brethren. The work was arranged for, and beginnings made, by Bro. Bressler. Open-air meetings were held during the summer.

The work at Reading was strengthened during the month by property sales and improvements.

February

Bro. J. H. Mellinger, President of the Board, writing while on a trip to the South, told us of the opportunities for colonization there. Sister Mary Mellinger of the Associated Sewing Circles told us that the Sewing Circle cutting room had sent out ready-to-sew garments to 21 Circles in Pennsylvania and 26 in other states

The Board reported that they had received $4,996.90 during the month of January.

March

An executive meeting was held at the Mennonite Children's Home at Millersville. This is the regular meeting place of the Board, since it is rather centrally located and the Board does not maintain quarters of its own. At this meeting it was decided to help Sister Emma Zimmerman, who proposed to conduct a Summer Bible School in the mountains of West Virginia. The help was to be in the form of Bibles, etc.

The Board reported an income of $3,109.62 for the month of February.

April

On Monday, April 4, began an eventful week for the mission cause in the Lancaster Conference. On that day the executive committees of the Board of Bishops and the Mission Board met in joint session at Weaverland Church, the largest of all our American church buildings. Among other things considered was the matter of the Board taking up some foreign missionary work. Hitherto the Eastern Board has acted as a collecting agency for the General Board. More intimate coöperation with the General Board is the goal.

A resolution authorizing a committee for "special object giving" was passed. This committee has since been appointed and is functioning in the capacity of encouraging giving regularly for some definite need.

The president of the Board, in addition to more routine matters, reported that the Emergency Relief Fund had been called upon to give $1,000.00 for the Florida flood and $500.00 for the Armenian earthquake relief. Two large clothing shipments were made.

Funds received during the month of March amounted to $1,253.48.

May

During the month the Board forwarded $1,000.00 for the relief of the flood sufferers of the Mississippi Valley. The fact that the money was drawn from the Emergency Relief enabled the money to be forwarded the day President Coolidge made his appeal. Later a second $1,000.00 contribution passed through the hands of the Board.

The contributions received during the month of April were $4,158.67.

The month of May marked the passing of the much-beloved "Dorcas" of Lancaster County, Sister Mary Mellinger, who had so faithfully served the Board as President of the Sewing Circles for many years.

June

At a special meeting of the Sewing Circles Sister Susan Metzler was chosen as President to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Sister Mellinger. Sister Nettie Leaman was chosen Secretary to fill Sister Metzler's place.

Receipts for the month totaled $5,088.23.

July

Starting in the last days of June, and continuing through the early days of July, a Daily Vacation Bible School was held by the workers of the Philadelphia Mission which is supported by the Board. About 75 children attended and good results were obtained. A similar Bible School was opened in Lancaster at the Vine Street Mission on the 18th of the month.

The Sewing Circles accepted the whole order of garments for India as sent them by the General Board at Elkhart, Ind., materials to cost $300.

Contributions for the month totaled $2,578.99.

The Sewing Circles held their 32nd annual meeting, reporting among other things, that the cutting room had sent out ready-to-sew garments to 65 Circles, 25 of which were out-of-state. Thirty-seven senior sewing circles are on the roll as well as 8 junior circles.

August

Receipts totaled $5,291.00 during July.

September

On Sept. 7, the superintendents of the Sunday schools of Lancaster County District met at the Vine Street Mission in all-day session. They reported a total of approximately 70 schools, with an enrollment of 12,700 in the schools reporting. Some schools outside of the county, but in the district, did not report.

Contributions to the amount of $2,558.00 were received the previous month.

October

During the month the first Quarterly Meeting of the combined Mission and Bishop Boards was held at Lancaster. Reports were given and routine business was transacted.

Receipts for September totaled $1,125.93.

The latter part of October saw the admission of the brotherhood at Washington, D. C., into the Lancaster Conference. They had previously expressed a willingness to identify themselves with this conference. The prospects are bright at that place, though the congregation is small. Nearly all the people there are former workers in their home Sunday schools. Quite a large Sunday school could be manned and doubtless will be when new quarters are obtained in the city proper.

November

Discussions took place during the month looking to the taking over of a part of and enlarging the foreign missionary work of the church.

Receipts for the month of October totaled $3,463.25.

December

The council of the Washington congregation reported favorably relative to the ordination of a minister at that place.

* * * *

The work of the Board is constantly expanding, as well it may. Realizing that one of the necessities of efficient work is the necessary information, the Board is laying stress upon certain phases of missionary publicity. It craves the prayers of the brotherhood everywhere that all decisions may be wisely made. Prayer may well be made, too, that more may see the need of doing all the missionary work that may be done with the means that we have. We trust that this report may have the effect of furthering the understanding that is so necessary if brethren propose to walk together, as brethren should, in unity.

THE NEW MENNONITE HOSPITAL AND SANITARIUM AT LA JUNTA, COLORADO

By Allen H. Erb

The picture which you see on the next page represents the present progress of the new hospital which the Mennonite Church is building. Work was begun on this building April 3, 1927, and will be completed about March 1, 1928. You ask, "Why does it take so long to build it?" The first explanation is that there are three buildings in the group. The building to your left is the main hospital. You can count the stories and by counting one row of windows you can gain some idea about its length. The building to your right is the Sanitarium. The wing of this building extends to the south so that you can not judge its size so well. But this wing has room for several patients on each floor and is about 65 feet long. The patients' rooms are all on the east side of the corridor so that a maximum of sunlight and air can be secured. Then farther back in the center is the boiler room and laundry. The boilers are below and the laundry on the top floor.

The second explanation is that these buildings are almost fireproof. The top floor of the Sanitarium is frame construction with brick veneer but all of the other parts of the buildings are built of concrete and steel. The partitions are built of wood studding with metal lath. To build of concrete takes longer than to build of wood, but when it is done it is more durable and serviceable.

Now look at the picture and I will describe some parts of the building. On the fourth floor you will see a large window back of the elevator scaffolding. This is the window to the main operating room. To the right on the third floor is another large window. Here you will find the delivery room of the obstetrical department. On this same floor to your left are small windows which mark the openings to wards and private rooms. Most of the space to the left of the stairway is for the use of patients. On the second floor the windows to the right of the stairway are openings into the offices and the windows to the left are openings into patients' private rooms. On the first floor the windows to the right of the stairway are the openings to the dining room and to the left are the laboratory, X ray department, and nurses' class room.

In the sanitarium building the space facing you is used for administration purposes. The patients will occupy the ward on the east side and the private rooms in the south wing. As before indicated these rooms are on only one side of the corridor. This gives the maximum of light and air to each patient. The patients' quarters are very comfortable indeed. Each patient's room in this building is divided into two sections. The outer room is an open air porch without a radiator in it; the inner room is heated and has places for furniture and the patient's clothes. This will be his living room.

The boiler room is back in the center between the two buildings. It is two stories high. The lower has two heating boilers and one high pressure boiler. The high pressure boiler furnishes steam for the water heater and for the sterilizers over the building. In this room also we have the water softener and the water pump. The upper floor has space for the laundry and a room for living quarters for the janitors.

All these buildings are connected with tunnels for the pipes with cement covers which serve as sidewalks. We have very little rain or snow so that covers over these walks are hardly necessary.

Between the buildings to the south we are planning to occupy the space with trees, grass, and flowers. A lawn will be developed all along the front of the building.

The New Hospital and Sanitarium

The reader may ask, "For what purpose is all this endeavor?" The Church should have the accomplishment of these three ends in view in this work, namely, Christian ministry to the bodily needs of men, evangelistic endeavor for the soul, and the training of Christian nurses.

No one is as well qualified to care for the sick as the Church. We have the graces of the religion of Jesus such as mercy, peace, good will, forbearance, kindness, perseverance, and love, which are so essential in this work. When the body is racked with pain how assuring to know that one possessed with these graces will minister! When the heart is bending every energy to save the life of some loved one how consoling to know that conscientious Christian effort is exercised in their behalf! The whole world gets sick; no life comes into the world without sickness, and few go out of the world without it. The king and the peasant, the rich and the poor, the upper classes and the lower classes, the learned and the unlearned, the white and the black, the weak and the strong, the young and the old—all become ill. If the Church builds a house by the side of the road, they will come in and then we have a chance to minister unto them. How this multiplies our point of contact with men! What golden opportunities to act the part of the Good Samaritan in a continual round of service toward the suffering.

But the Church recognizes that man has a soul as well as a body. She sees not only the diseased body, which needs repair, but a distressed and lost soul which must be restored. So while with one hand the Church pours the oil of nature into the wounds of the body and soothes the suffering, with the other hand she pours the oil of God's grace through His dear Son into the sin-sick and ruined soul. Experience has shown that at no time is the man more willing to permit this ministry than when sick. In this day of slack church attendance many find this hour in which they were seemingly accidentally placed in contact with the Church through the hospital one of the few opportunities they have had to face the Gospel of Christ. Dear brother and sister who may read this, here is just one more opportunity of working for your Savior.

Caring for the sick is a plain duty taught in the Scriptures. But it is an art to be learned. Therefore we have those who are led to take training in nursing the sick. History has proved the ill effects of training secured in worldly schools. The Church, by providing a training school of her own, shall be able to save many of her own sisters and besides will prepare some for definite missionary service under her various Church boards. We already have an alumni of 25 members. We have a class entering training this fall of 14. In this work the Church is conserving this talent to give testimony for the Church.

For the above work we ask your prayers and money. We need more funds to complete the building and to furnish the rooms. Cash donations or annuity gifts may be made to the treasurer of the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities, Bro. V. E. Reiff, Elkhart, Ind.

OUR CHURCH SCHOOLS AND THEIR PROGRAMS

By Orie O. Miller

The future historian of Education in the Mennonite Church will hardly regard the year 1927 as significant for any fundamental changes or crises in the educational program of the church. Rather will the year be evaluated as one of a period, already about half a decade long, during which there has been a steadily growing recognition among all groups in the Church of the relative importance of this phase of her work and a growing feeling among our leaders that we need to give to the problem our clearest thinking, our most prevailing intercessions, and much waiting on the Lord for its solution. To some of us, who have had faith and the conviction that the Church can and will solve this problem satisfactorily, and who have felt that our church schools can be so conducted that they will become generally recognized as an asset to the Church rather than a problem, it has been most encouraging to note the seeming forward steps during recent years.

The educational problem is now generally considered one of the greatest and probably the most important of the issues confronting the Church. There has been a marvelous change during the past few years. It is now generally recognized among the brotherhood that the problem cannot be avoided. It is also true that each year more of our people see it as an opportunity rather than as a problem.

Assuming, then, that reference to the experience of the Church in educational work prior to this present cycle is beside the purpose of this paper, accepting as a premise the preceding statement that 1927 can be properly evaluated only in its relationship to the cycle period which we shall assume to have begun in about 1922, we shall discuss our subject further under the following four heads:

I. Steps taken in present program previous to 1927.

II. Forward steps during 1927.

III. Present favorable factors in our Church educational situation.

IV. Present unfavorable factors.

I. Steps Taken in Present Program Prior to 1927

1. The Mennonite Board of Education formally recognized the educational problem as church-wide and has been proceeding on the premise that a church-wide unified program will present the only adequate solution.

2. Our three schools have subscribed to the policy of a loyal maintenance and teaching of Christian standards as believed in and practiced by the Church, and are adapting their curricula and scholastic standards to merit recognition from the highest crediting agencies. Our boards have repeatedly endorsed such procedure.

3. The Board of Education adopted policies of finance which seek to guarantee economy in institutional administration, to prevent the accumulation of debts, to safeguard capital and trust funds, and to encourage the building up of endowments.

4. The General Conference formally recognized the Board of Education at its 1923 meeting and has since granted it representatition.

5. The Eastern Mennonite School in 1926 completed a building program, that very materially enhanced its capacity to serve the eastern end of the Church.

II. Forward Steps During 1927

1. Adoption and inauguration by the Board of Education of an endowment raising program for Goshen and Hesston Colleges—the two institutions under its jurisdiction. The program is to cover a three-year period and seeks to attain about one-third the ultimate minimum goal for endowments necessary for the adequate standardization of these two institutions.

2. The invitation of the Eastern Mennonite School Board to the several Eastern conferences to coöperate in forming a Board of Trustees more representative of its constituency.

3. A formal recognition by the Board of Education of the growing place in our Church school program of the various Short Bible Term Schools and the appointment of a Study Committee who are to study the aims and policies of these institutions and to bring recommendations that will tend to unify and correlate their work with that of our regular schools and Bible departments.

4. The inauguration of informal meetings of Church, School and Board leaders representative of all three schools, their Boards and constituencies for frank discussion of common problems and a unified approach at their solution. Steps have been taken to hold such meetings at least annually.

III. Present Favorab'e Factors in Our Church Educational Situation

1. A healthily growing confidence on the part of the entire brotherhood in our schools as conducted, and a growing recognition of what the schools need in the way of support financially and otherwise.

2. The fact that the Lancaster Conference which included one-fourth of the membership of the Church has, at its last two sessions, had the educational question under advisement and plans to continue its endeavor to ascertain its attitude at coming sessions of Conference.

3. The loyal support which the various district conferences constituent to the Board of Education, are giving its program.

4. The splendid and Christian inter-school feeling that exists between both schools under the Mennonite Board of Education. Many will recognize the present state a decided improvement over the past in this respect.

5. The present general and widespread interest in this problem and a deep concern that it be solved right.

IV. Present Unfavorable Factors

1. Although we praise the Lord for recent improvements in inter-school relations, there is still much to be desired. The mind of the brotherhood is often confused and troubled, and the whole cause hindered, by apparent conflict of po'icy and indication of lack of confidence between institutions. These situations may largely reflect similar situations in the Church at large, but should be remedied.

2. The fact that the Lancaster Conference has not yet been able to arrive at a decision on the Church school question. Delay of this Conference on this is likely to prove conducive to a similar status in the two adioining Conferences.

3. The lack within Board and school circles of a well-formulated, c'early defined educational policy. Professional training in all three schools seems limited to that of teaching. Our young people in increasing numbers are entering other callings and professions. In what ways and to what extent our church schools should function along these lines and just where our major emphasis should be are questions whose answers dare not be long delayed.

4. The high school problem in our local communities. Our membership is so scattered that only a small portion of our young people can have the advantage of our Church academies. In a few more of the larger centers the ultimate solution may lie in establishment of our own high schools. In others the remedy must be sought elsewhere.

The ultimate satisfactory solution of the various phases of this prob'em calls for the continued intercessions of all the brotherhood, much and patient waiting upon the Lord to learn His will and way, and the consecration of the time and talent of those in the service of our schools and boards.

A NEW HOUSE OF WORSHIP AT PORTLAND, OREGON

By Viola Wenger

When we think of worship, or a p'ace of worship, our minds are drawn to the words of Jesus when He addresses the woman of Samaria: "But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. God is a Spirit; and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth." It is not the place of worship which is pleasing to God, but the spirit of the worshiper. Nevertheless there must be a place where people can congregate for worship, a place where people can be gathered together to be taught the way of worship, a place where they can learn to know the object of worship, a place where saints can mingle in adoration and praise, to the edifying of one another in love, and a place where sinners can come to hear of God's love for lost souls, that they may acquaint themselves with the One who satisfies every longing of the human heart if subjected to His healing balm.

For this cause we praise Him from whom all blessings flow, for giving us a house of worship, such as will accommodate the people who have been meeting with us in worship, as well as those who will gather as time goes on.

New Mission Building, Portland, Oreg.

Five years ago this fall, on November 12, the first Sunday school, operated by what is now known as the Portland Mission, was conducted in the old hall just vacated; last Sunday, December 11, 1927, was the first Sunday since the opening day that no services were held in that hall.

For these years the workers on the field labored earnestly to gather in as many children and older ones as possible, that they might hear the Word of God and learn to love Him who died for all. The attendance at Sunday school and other services steadily increased until the old hall became quite inadequate in furnishing ample space for all.

Consequently the question of more room for our Sunday school classes and children's church became a vital one. After much deliberation and prayer on the part of the superintendent of the Mission, workers, and others, it was decided that a new hall, furnishing ample room for the group we now have and accommodations for an increased attendance, be erected.

After Bro. Allan Good, the superintendent of the Mission, had fulfilled the desires of the Local Mission Board, by presenting the matter of a new building to the bishops of the local conference district, the matter was taken to the General Mission Board meeting at Milford, Nebraska. Here this organization gave its approval of the proposed building project. Later the district conference, after a careful and deliberate consideration of the work done and the great need of larger quarters for the operation of the activities of Portland Mission, decided to place its stamp of approval upon the plan worked out by a group of brethren, known as the Building Committee, and pledged its loyal support in the carrying out of the building project.

Accordingly work began the week following the district conference in June. Workmen from the various congregations of the district came to help wreck the building which stood on the grounds formerly used for the Children's Home. As soon as the old building was out of the way, excavation for the new building was begun. After a few weeks the basement walls were built and the superstructure begun.

Since that time the work has been continually progressing, sometimes very rapidly and again not as rapidly, but at no time was it at a standstill since it was started early in June.

We are made to feel that this work is progressing similarly to that in Nehemiah's time, when it was said of the workmen, "So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work." The head carpenters of this building force are three brethren of our local conference district. Most of the other laborers are also members of the body of Christ. Thus they could work together more zealously because they had a common interest, that of building a house of worship, where souls might hear the Word of life and drink freely of the life-giving fountain. Not only did those who labored with their hands in the excavation for the basement, or the laying of blocks, or the nailing together of boards, aid in the erection of this house but the brethren and sisters from east, west, north, and south helped by sending in of their means to pay for the materials to be used in this building.

The first meeting, a missionary program both morning and evening, was conducted in the new building, November 13. We trust that the spirit of this meeting may prevail as long as the building stands. These meetings were held in the basement. Since that time our regular services have been held in this room. The main auditorium, which seats approximately four hundred, was used for our Christmas exercises, December 18.

There will still be much work to be done on the building before it is completed; but we feel that "the Lord has done great things for us whereof we are glad," in that He has made it possible for us to hold all of our services in this building, where we have plenty of room for all of the Sunday school classes and children's church, that we do not need to take them to other buildings for their exercises.

The sewing circle group keenly appreciates the advantages afforded them, by the new building in providing a permanent place of meeting, and space where they can work more effectively. This well-lighted basement room seems animated when from twenty to thirty willing workers meet twice a month to mend or sew for needy ones.

Besides the sewing room the basement provides for four small class rooms and one large hall, which can be curtained off for class rooms or thrown open in one large room as occasion demands. This large hall will also be used as a dining room in which we will serve our Christmas dinner, for the Sunday school children. One of the class rooms will serve as a kitchen for that occasion.

The main floor provides for three class rooms, one medium-sized hall for the primary department of the Sunday school, two cloak rooms, and a main auditorium. Besides these rooms on the main floor there is a balcony with a seating capacity of about one hundred.

This house will comfortably provide for much larger groups than we were able to accommodate in our old quarters. We hope and pray that in proportion as the seating capacity of the house of worship has been increased, so will the work of the Lord increase in this section of His vineyard.

THE LORD'S WORK IN CANADA

By Jesse B. Martin

In writing a brief article on the Lord's work in Canada among the Mennonite people we have an immense geographical scope to cover for we must remember that Canada has more territory than the United States. Since our brethren in the Canadian Northwest (Alberta and Saskatchewan) are thousands of miles from Ontario, this article will be almost entirely based on the work of the Ontario Conference District.

We indeed can say with the Psalmist: "Blessed be the Lord, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation" (Psa. 68:19). In a material way the Lord this past year left His blessing rest upon us with a bountiful harvest throughout the Dominion. In a spiritual way we are loaded daily with benefits. For all these rich blessings of good crops, physical preservation, rich soil, food, etc., we again are reminded of what David said in Psa. 126:3: "The Lord hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad."

In the Ontario Conference District there are at present twenty-eight places of worship, including the city mission in Toronto. The total membership in these congregations is 1987. In comparing this total with that of last year's report we praise the Lord that He has added an increase to the Church of 143 members. Praise God for His blessing of conviction, conversions, and additions to the Church.

Our Rural Mission Board has charge of four of the above mentioned churches—Bothwell, Roseville, Sherkston, and Western New York in the state of New York. The work in New York is worthy of notice. This church has a membership of 106 and a Sunday school enrollment of 175. The church is growing and the outstanding need is a permanent pastor. The work at Bothwell is revived. Bro. and Sister Newton Weber have moved into this district and are carrying on the Lord's work. At this place they did not have a house of worship so the Mission Board bought one of the town churches which had not been in use since several churches united with the United Church of Canada.

Perhaps one of the outstanding things is the growing interest in our Annual Bible Study. The Conference for the last twenty-one years has conducted a Bible Course during the winter. God has blessed this work. Last winter over 100 students were enrolled. With the growing interest, attendance, etc., the Bible Study outgrew its housing quarters and demanded some forward move in the way of accommodations. The Ontario Conference at the last session passed the following resolution: "Whereas, the Bible School of our Conference has grown to the extent that it becomes necessary to provide better accommodations; and, Whereas, the Kitchener congregation has offered to coöperate with the Bible Study Board to erect such a building, which will provide suitable accommodations for both Bible Study and public worship, and as there are sufficient funds in sight, as called for by a former resolution of Conference; Therefore, Be it resolved, That we ask this Conference to appoint one member of the Bible Study Board and one of the Executive Committee of Conference, to act in conjunction with the Kitchener congregation, to commence at once the building of an annex to the Kitchener Church for a Bible School." This resolution has been carried out and an annex has been built to the First Mennonite Church at Kitchener to be used as a Bible School and also for public meetings when needed. Since the Kitchener Church is centrally located in Mennonite communities this annex will help to solve the problem in taking care of large crowds, such as Conferences, Board Meetings, etc. Nov. 27 was the date when the dedication services were held for the Bible School annex.

I can hardly close this article without referring to Bishop N. B. Stauffer from Alberta. Bro. Stauffer labored in our midst the past summer. The Lord used him in several series of revival meetings. The preached Word was magnified by God to the salvation of a number of souls. We were all saddened to hear of his sudden death after being home for only a few days. The Holy Ghost used him one evening at our Annual Conference to deliver a powerful sermon. During that message he made this statement, "Let the Gospel chariot roll on." We are glad that God is letting the Gospel chariot roll on in Canada. Souls have taken the opportunity of getting on board the Gospel chariot. Our work may seem small when compared with the work in the United States, but God is blessing the work in Canada. His Word has revived many a dying Christian, others have been born again, and all of us as Christians have found the promise true that, "Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled" (Matt. 5:6). "Oh that men would praise the Lord for His goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness" (Psa. 107:8, 9).

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.—Phil. 4:8.

THE DETROIT MISSION

By C. C. King

The past five or six years Mennonites have been moving into the city of Detroit for the purpose of financial gain and perhaps some of them had little regard for the Church and her teachings according to the Scriptures. During this time Bro. Peter Ropp of Imlay City, Mich., also came to work, and, upon seeing the conditions as they were, and in view of the fact that still more Mennonites were coming into the city he began to think of holding church services and upon getting in touch with the Indiana-Michigan Mission Board they were able to rent a small house, out of which they took the partitions, thus making a room large enough for holding services. About Dec. 1, 1926, the first services were held. This was the beginning of a Mennonite Church in the great city of Detroit. In this small house, perhaps about 18 x 20, services were held until Oct. 30, when we were permitted to move into a new building in which we have our church home at present.

At present we have services every Sunday, consisting of Sunday school and preaching services in the morning, and Junior Meeting in the evening. We are planning to go to some police station or other institution to hold meetings on Sunday afternoons. Just how this will be accomplished we cannot tell just yet. Our regular meetings are usually well attended, especially Sunday evenings. Those, however, who attend are not only of our own members, for the people of the community attend quite regularly.

The district in which the church is located has about four hundred inhabitants. Of these about 90 per cent have not gone to church for the past five years, which is the length of time that this place has been opened up for building purposes. There is no other church nearer than one and a half miles, which is a great distance in the city. Therefore, we have an opportunity which does not necessarily exist in most cities. Of course, these people are not Christians, that is, the most of them. This fact enlarges our responsibilities greatly. They all have souls to be saved and if only one is won in the lifetime of the Church in Detroit, according to the Master's words, the Mission will have been repaid exceedingly far above their expenditures. However, we are glad to say that five souls have accepted or rededicated their lives to our Savior, who stands ready to save the lost, and a number of others are considering coming out definitely for the Master.

Just here it may be well to mention something that will cause all Mennonites to watch their Christian life. Recently one who is under serious conviction said, "I will watch all those connected with the Church as to whether they will live up to the teachings of the Church or not." Some may interpret this to be an excuse, but this fact remains, and it is Scriptural, that we are known and read by all men and it is true nevertheless, that outside people read the lives of church members a great deal more than they do their Bibles. A great deal can be done for the cause of Christ by living a consistent Christian life, and, on the other hand, we find that even when our city missionaries are trying to hold the teachings of the Bible and the Church and some of its members come in contact with the city work who are inconsistent and disobedient to the Church a big stone is placed in the way of our work which sometimes takes years to remove, and sometimes even to the loss of some weaker member of the fold. It is true that if Romans 13 and I Corinthians 8 would be followed there would be less inconsistencies in the Church and in mission work.

There are in this district alone several hundred souls that are known to be outside of the fold of Christ. Will it pay to try to win some of these? I am sure that all who read this will say with the Master that one soul is worth more than the whole world. Therefore one soul won for Christ and saved for His service will more than pay for the time, energy, and money spent here. To be sure the Indiana-Michigan Mission Board has no other thought than to save souls for Christ, and to this intent they are working.

At present the Board owns two lots and the building in which the services are being held, but they are renting the home for the workers at the cost of $30.00 per month. This expense, among others, must come monthly. The Board is in debt about $2,000.00 on the building. This money has to be paid some time and we are sure that if all who are interested in the welfare of both the saved and unsaved will come to the rescue with their means, this debt will be lifted in a short while. We are sure that our Father will burden the hearts of all those who are interested in the well-being of others to raise this debt. Not only do we solicit the means of our brethren and sisters but also the prayers of all that God may have His way in all things.

The workers wish to extend a hearty invitation to any and all to visit the Mission here. You are always welcome.

VESSELS FROM THE LORD

God makes us vessels for His use. He takes us as lumps of clay, and fashions us into the kind of vessels that please Him.

When we see a beautiful vase we admire it, but can not praise it for its beauty; we must praise the maker. So it is in the Christian life, the more beautiful the life, the more we can see that the clay has been submissive in the Master's hand and that He has bestowed thought and care upon it until it is just as He would have it.

From a worldly standpoint we would think that the vessels used by a king are the honored vessels. He must have all kinds, the same as we. But the little, plain cooking dishes used in preparing his meals are just as necessary, and even more useful than the beautiful hand-painted china used to adorn the room. How much encouragement that should be to us! We are the vessels used by the King of kings and Lord of lords. If we are seemingly out of sight, and think no one thinks or cares for us, let us remember that our Father has fashioned us into just the kind of vessels that He would have us be if we have been submissive, and He will reward our labors if we are faithful in performing them.—Hazel Kleeberger.

I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.—Phil. 3:14.

OUR PRECIOUS HERITAGE

By John Schlabaugh

Christian friends: In studying our precious heritage I discovered a vast number of factors that made it possible. Owing to the limitation of space I thought it wise to restrict myself to the two most vital factors of our precious heritage, viz., the principles and faith of our forefathers. So in the consideration of these phases of our heritage my aim is, not to exalt Mennonism, or the works of man, but rather to honor and glorify Him whose Spirit and love moved thousands of our forefathers to brave unparalleled persecutions and sufferings, and, if needs be, die the martyr's death to maintain their peace with God and to preserve the principles and faith of His Word to us, their posterity.

To have you appreciate our precious heritage in its fullness I shall ask you to go back in history with me and review the times and conditions in which it had its origin. Four centuries ago the Gospel of Christ was to humanity a hidden message, covered up by Roman ritualism. The way of salvation was taught to be in the hands of a malicious clergy, who with their priestcraft commercialized the souls of men. Religious liberty and freedom of conscience were held to be serious offenses to civil and church authorities. In short, man was in spiritual bondage, away from God and without Christ in this world.

Along about A. D. 1520, two influential Catholic priests, Martin Luther and Ulrich Zwingli, were converted to Christ; and as a natural consequence they proclaimed evangelical doctrine wherever they went. The soul-benighted people of Southern Germany and Northern Switzerland accepted their message with gladness and turned to Christ by the thousands.

During the first two years of labor the two reformers preached and stood for a whole Bible teaching. They denounced the union of church and state; and contended for the doctrine of salvation through faith; baptism, only on the confession and evidence of faith; nonresistance; nonswearing of oaths; freedom of conscience; and separation from the world in all respects of life. To them the Christian was a pilgrim and a stranger in this world, bound to suffer persecution and distress if he would remain true to his Lord and calling.

By the year 1522, the majority of the people in the realms of the reformers denounced Catholicism. This meant separation of church and state which caused trouble for the reformers and their followers from both civil and church authorities. The electors or the states wherein the reformation took place were willing to aid the reformers in the overthrow of Romanism, but seriously protested against religious liberty and disunion of church and state. At this time the civil authorities made the reformers a proposition, with the alternative of becoming popular and eminent as state church leaders by complying with their demands in establishing and maintaining a reformed state church, with the exclusion of all creeds—exactly the policy and practice of the established church, or to become outlaws and heretics by continuing in their program of reform on a New Testament basis.

These two men deserve our thanks and gratitude for their unparalleled work in the beginning of their careers. But they, like we, were subject to be led astray by the enemy of our souls, and thus consented to an unholy union between church and state in their final decision on the proposition of the civil authorities. To do this they had to sacrifice most of the doctrine and principles which they formerly stood for and preached, particularly the doctrine of liberty of conscience, salvation by faith, believers' baptism, nonresistance, and separation from the world. Instead of continuing in their former positions, leading their folds in the path of truth and right, the two reformers became passive political tools in the hands of the non-Christian electors. Instead of continuing the preaching of the Gospel and inviting their followers to accept it they set to making creeds to meet the needs of the civil authorities in establishing and maintaining a state church. After formulating what they termed a creed based on New Testament teaching they went to forcing the acceptance of it upon their people, by means of outrageous legislation and the sword. As in the established Catholic church, church membership and obedience to the prescribed rituals of the church were compulsory. The person within the reformation realms, whether saved or unsaved, who refused to comply with the demands of the state churchmen was subject to severe persecution, imprisonment, and, if persistent in his stand, death. It is interesting to note that both Zwingli and Luther claimed to be establishing the church of Christ with their creeds as their foundation, while at the same time, outside of infant baptism, persecution of dissenters, and union of church and state, their creeds were anything but congruent in doctrine.

It is at this turn in history our precious heritage had its origin. Thousands of our forefathers who had tasted of the good Word of God and of the life which is to come refused to comply with the demons of the state church authorities, because of the principles of God's Word for which they stood. Instead of formulating a philosophical creed, as the Lutherans, Zwinglians, and Catholics did, and by means of the sword forcing it upon the people, our forefathers took their stand with God and His Word, let come what may. They stood for all the distinctive doctrines of our church, even if it meant persecution, ostracism, banishment, or death. The enemies of our forefathers made light of their creed, accusing them of having only three important doctrines, viz., faith, love, and the cross. Our forefathers made a whole lot of these three important doctrines, but not to the exclusion of other doctrines of the Bible. By faith they meant a definite adherence of one's whole life to God and His Word, as the only means of salvation and righteousness in the sight of God, and a definite means of guidance, especially in the dark hours of persecution, on the part of God. By love they meant a divine love for Christ and His followers: to Christ, because of what He had done, and is doing for them; to their fellowmen, because of what they had done for one another and they were eager to pass on the good work. By the cross they meant a life of self-denial, out of love to Christ and His cause, and a life of complete separation from the world. It was this doctrine that made them pilgrims and strangers in Europe and this country. If it would not have been for the faith, love, and the cross in the religion of our forefathers, I feel sure we would not have the precious heritage that we have and enjoy to-day.

So, to sum up our precious heritage I would say we are indebted to Christ and our forefathers of the last four centuries for a Church that stands for a whole Bible teaching, for a church that recognizes Christ as its Redeemer, Lord, and Master, for a church that always has been characterized by simple, plain people, who are looking beyond the transitory things of life in their everyday walk and conduct.—Eastern Mennonite School Journal.

THE DUNGEONS AT ANTWERP

By John Horsch

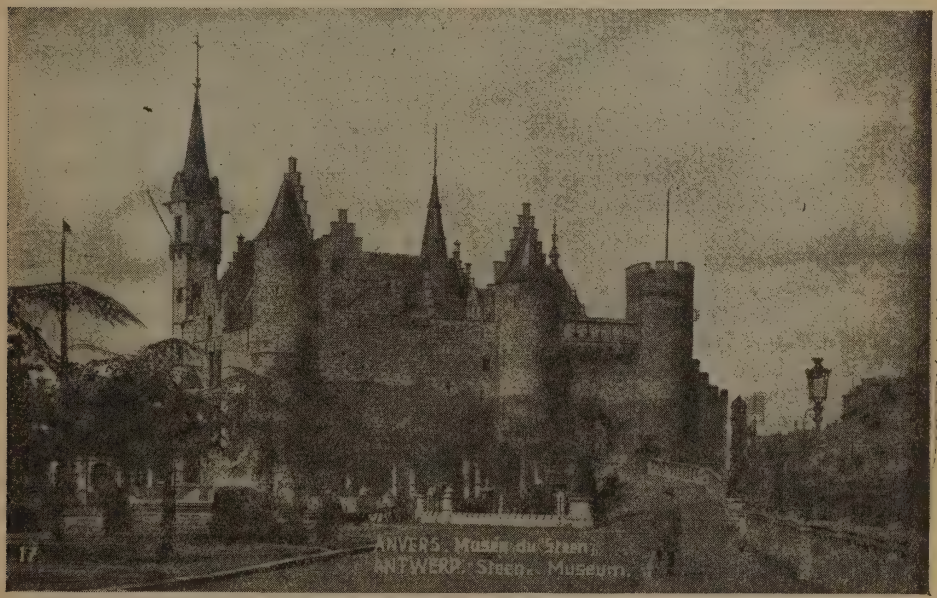
It had long been my desire to visit the city of Antwerp in Belgium in order to see, if possible, the dungeons under the ancient castle called The Stone (Het Steen) which is mentioned so frequently in the Martyr's Mirror. In the British Museum I found a guide book from which I learned that Het Steen is still standing.

I reached Antwerp late in the evening of December 7. On the following morning Het Steen was found without difficulty. It is located on an elevated place quite near the Scheldt River. The building which has under it the dungeons is a castle. It has recently been restored and is now used for a museum.

Having entered the office I informed the gentleman in charge that I desired to see the dungeons. He lighted one of a number of candles that were standing on a table and went with me through the hall to the door of the stairway. My expectation that a guide would accompany me down and through the dungeons was not realized. The officer stopped and, handing me the light, assured me that there was no danger to go down. While I knew that this was doubtless true, and went without hesitation, yet I confess that someone to go with me would have been welcome.

Slowly I made my way down the stairway. As I proceeded it became perfectly dark except for the light of the candle I was carrying. Directly at the foot of the stairway I noticed a large flat stone which, as I was told afterwards, closes an opening about two feet in diameter which leads down into the Scheldt River.

The dungeons consist of nearly a dozen rather low vaulted rooms of various sizes, from 4 by 7 to 16 by 16 feet. The natural light of day does not reach this dreary place and, what is more surprising, there is, with one or two exceptions, no opening whatever for the admittance of air, except the doors which have small openings for ventilation. Besides, the doors do not lead into a hall, as might be supposed, but from one dungeon into another. From these dungeons probably more Mennonite martyrs were led forth to their death than from any other place.



"Het Steen" in Antwerp

If there is such a thing as a holy place, these dark dungeons will, for the sake of the hallowed memories attaching to them, doubtless come under this category. Here, as already intimated, many were imprisoned for their faith in the living God and in His Christ and in the integrity and validity of His Word. They were often put together with the vilest criminals. They were subjected to hunger and torture, being always aware that certain death at the hands of the executioner was awaiting them. Yet their faith did not waver nor falter. They had the inner assurance that if they remained steadfast, their death would be a testimony to the truth and hence a blessing to others, that God who had permitted this to come upon them would be glorified and the end would be glory. These dungeons and the places of execution in the yard of the prison and in the market place of the city were the scenes of great spiritual victories.

How do we know of their frame of mind during the time of their imprisonment? We know from the letters which they wrote here to their brothers and sisters and friends. The Martyr's Mirror contains more than a score of letters written in these very dungeons—written under the most trying circumstances. It was difficult for prisoners to obtain the light, paper, and ink needed for writing. One of these letters was written with a little juice of "krakeberries."

Reader, if you sometimes are attacked by discouragement, if you feel at times that your trials and difficulties are severe, you will probably after due consideration, come to the conclusion that, compared with the experiences of these brethren and sisters, your lines are fallen in pleasant places. Studying the history of these faithful confessors and reading their letters, which breathe a spirit of child ike faith and boundless trust in the living God, will probably make you feel ashamed of your own discouragement and lack of faith under far more favorab'e circumstances. At least such has been the experience of many who have read the Martyr's Mirror.

Scottdale, Pa.

SPEAKING OF FAULTS

A man was complaining of the many faults of his fellow church members.

"But you have faults," I cried.

"Oh, I suppose so," he answered. "I don't claim perfection."

"Well, haven't all the other members just as good a right to their faults as you have?"

"Yes."

"Suppose, then every member were just like you—two or three faults apiece. Let's see; six hundred members—eighteen hundred faults, granting each member the luxury of his fault just once a year; say, would the church be any better? Perhaps you enjoy the luxury of yours several times a year. Of course, I don't believe that; but if it were true, what a church it would be by being—just like you!"

"Your reasoning seems to be good," he said: "perhaps I am too critical."

WORDS

Words are such mighty things, dear Lord,
I feel I cannot bear
With worthiness this stewardship
Thou hast given to my care.
They lift the soul to heavenly heights
Or drag to depths of woe;
Their mighty power to curse, or bless
No human heart may know.
My neighbor's need I may not see,
Or burdens that oppress,
And I may wound him with the words
That seek alone to bless.
Forgive me, Lord, for careless words
When hungry souls are near;
Words that are not of Faith, and Love,
Heavy with care and fear;
Forgive me for the words withheld,
For words that might have won
A soul from darkened paths and sin
To follow Thy dear Son.
Words are such mighty things, dear Lord,
May I so yielded be
That Christ, Who spake as never man
May ever speak through me.

—Amy R. Thomas.

SEPARATION

"Wherefore come out from among them,.....and I.....will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty."—II Cor. 6:17, 18.

Do not be satisfied because you have touched the fringe of His garment and have a general blessing and feeling of health and strength which He has given to you. He wants us to come in front of Him, to look into His face, and tell Him all the truth. Then, bending over us, He will say, "Son," "Daughter." He wants you to confess Him in order that you may have that deeper blessing of being addressed by Him and told that you are His child. It does not matter what synagogue flings you out if Jesus says "Daughter." It does not matter about social ostracism if Jesus Christ calls you "Son."

—G. Campbell Morgan.

"JESUS ONLY" FOR THE YEAR

Jesus Only (Matt. 17:8).

Examine me, O Lord, and prove me; try my reins and my heart (Ps. 26:2).

Save me for Thy mercies' sake (Ps. 6:4).

Unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given (Is. 9:6).

Seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and His righteousness (Matt. 6:33).

Open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it (Ps. 81:10).

Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy (I Tim. 4:14).

Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in Me (14:1).

Ye have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you (John 15:16).

For there is no power but of God (Rom. 13:1).

Occupy till I come (Luke 19:13).

Rejoice ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them (Rev. 12:12).

Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ (Rom. 5:1).

He is the Rock, His work is perfect (Deut. 32:4).

Even Christ pleased not Himself (Rom. 15:3).

Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men (I Cor. 7:23).

Enter into His gates with thanksgiving (Ps. 100:4).

Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body (II Cor. 4:10).

Return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good (Jer. 18:11).

—Tillie Mayer.

FORGET IT

Has some one played a scurvy trick?
Forget it.
Has some one soaked you with a brick?
Forget it.
Don't let the memory endure:
A scheme of vengeance will not cure
A single sore, you may be sure—
Forget it.

Has some one used your name in vain?
Forget it.
Don't call upon him to explain.
Forget it.
If you are straight and good and true,
What matter what men say of you?
Don't fuss or pause the rag to chew—
Forget it.

HEAVEN BELOW

In the rugged hill country of Northern Scotland lived an old man, Ronald Macdonald, of whom a writer in "The Watchman" says, "He never saw a railway train, never heard an organ play, never owned a five-pound note and never doubted a word of the Bible." Yet "in his humble cottage with its peat fire he was supremely happy in the Lord."

How many people to-day are traveling in palace cars and limousines all over the country, have heard the finest music and listened to the world's most renowned singers, and have money by the millions—all to make them happy, if possible, but yet are not happy!

Why? Because they lack one thing, faith in the Word of God. Without Christ a palace can not make the owner really happy. With Christ a humble cottage is Heaven below. After all is said and written of this world's beautiful things it yet remains true that "Christ is all, and in all." "The world passeth away and the lust thereof but he that doeth the will of God abideth forever."

THE ROMANCE OF A GREAT BOOK

"Pilgrim's Progress" in Many Lands and Languages

"Pilgrim's Progress" is easily the world's second best-seller. Great agencies in this country and England that distribute Christian literature, such as the Religious Tract Society of London, find it the most usable and popular steady book next to the Bible. Its simple style has rendered it capable of ready translation, so that it can be understood in all parts of the globe, and there is a fascinating list of 122 languages into which the book has been translated during the past hundred years. This number increases with every year. The story of the spread of a book second only in value to the Holy Scriptures themselves from country to country and from one race to another is a proof of its wonderful virility and attractive power.

Just as many of the names of characters and places in this book have found their way into everyday English, and are often heard on the lips of those who have forgotten their origin, so in the languages of non-Christian countries, from the backward tribes of the Congo to the cultured students of China, characters and incidents are rapidly becoming current coin.

We know what we mean when we speak of "Vanity Fair" or "Giant Despair," but so does the native of Fiji or the Gilbert Islander, and so also does the Christian Dyak, who, having retired from the head-hunting business, reads his "Palisang Oloh Kristen" with the best of us.

Mrs. A. B. Fisher, a missionary of Uganda, once told the following story:

"One day during one of those long itinerating tours we had to pass along a terrible road over miles of swamp. The only way to traverse these swamps is to be carried on the shoulders of native bearers, with your feet well out. After some time in this most uncomfortable position, with my back nearly breaking, I told my bearers to put me down as I could not hold on any longer. Happily there was a tree trunk close handy, and they deposited me safely upon this, and I was able to rest for a time. Mr. Fisher, however was less fortunate. He was being carried on the shoulders of his bearers, when one slipped, with the result that my husband took a header into the mud. One of the natives who had been carrying me turned round and said, 'Oh, mistress, poor "Bani" is like Christian in the Slough of Despond!' I only give you this instance to show how the people are assimilating the teaching of 'Pilgrim's Progress.' The volume is their faithful friend."

Some of these languages must have taxed the skill of the printer, notably that of the Eskimo, for which a special font of type had to be cast. The trouble was that there were not enough K's to go round.

It is not difficult to recognize the book under its Portuguese title of "O Peregrino," or "En Pilligrims Bandring," Danish. But disguised as "Ny Fandehana' Ny Mpirahiny," we might take some time to discover our old friend in its Malagasy dress, while "Mongo Mo Modali-Mo-Mondo" (Ngombe) would completely baffle us.

No important language is missing. Even the Cree Indians of Moosonee —a humble tribe,—have their own "Pilgrim's Progress" in a script that looks like a proposition from Euclid or a stenographic nightmare.

But if there are strange-looking languages, there are stranger-looking illustrations. It might give us a shock to see the Japanese Pilgrim dressed as a warrior of the Samurai type, long sword and chain armor all complete, or to turn to the end of the book (which apparently is the beginning of it,) and see what looks like a bit of a willow-pattern plate, but which is actually the "Pilgrim crossing the river on his way to the Celestial City." To-day, however, the Japanese gentleman can walk down Ginza, the leading business street in Tokyo, and buy as easily—but not so cheaply,—as he buys his evening paper a de luxe edition of Bunyan in Morocco binding, with the beautiful and well-known illustrations of Harold Copping.

There are thousands of folk in obscure corners of the earth who will never meet an Englishman in this life, but in the next there will be one Englishman whom they will all greet as an old friend and companion,—John Bunyan, the tinker of Bedford. —Record of Christian Work.

NOT HERESY BUT APOSTASY

It is when we come to consider the redemptive content of the Gospel that I have no hesitation in declaring that certain sections of the Protestant church of to-day are apostate. Please note that I did not say heretical, but apostate. It is not the perversion of the New Testament doctrine of redemption that troubles me so much, as the quiet dismissal of it. Even an heretical statement of the doctrine of redemption requires that with it there should be a statement of the evangelical truth, in order that what the many repudiating may be made clear. But what we are now confronted with is a terrible silence as to redeeming love. Love is proclaimed and preached about as never before in the history of Christianity; but not the love of God in the only New Testament interpretation and statement of it, that is, love that bleeds, love that died, love that substitutes, love that expiates and atones, love that redeems. That is what the New Testament means by the love of God.

No man can preach Faith in its highest definition without preaching the atonement, the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world, eternal as God Himself, and as universal in its reach as human nature. When you talk of faith, let it be as the high New Testament definition of faith, faith in the bleeding Christ that Christ died not merely to leave an incomparable example, not merely to melt my heart and move me to repent, not merely to confirm by His death the doctrines He had declared, but to take the sinner's place and drink the sinner's cup; to give sin its awful due, and yet mercy its longing desire; to enable God to remain just, and yet the justifier of them that believe in Jesus. That is the only kind of faith worth preaching about, faith in Him who hath redeemed us not with corruptible things, as silver and gold, but with the precious Blood of Christ. My faith looks up to Thee Thou Lamb of God!

"Make no mistake about it, for that glad triumphant faith in atoning and redeeming love there can be no substitute. That is the preacher's mightiest weapon. No genius, no industry, no learning, no research, no talents, no deep interest in one's fellowman can take the place of a personal faith in Jesus Christ as one's Redeemer, to be able to say to one's self, 'He loved me and gave Himself for me'! and to repeat it, as Paul did, to others. As I have already intimated, we hear much to-day in the liberal camp about 'personal experience' as the authority and ratification of religion. I, too, accept that test, but not in the way the modernists use the term. By personal experience at the foot of the Cross, where love bled and died for guilty sinners. The real division in Christianity is just here. It is not as between ancient and modern modes of thought, nor between educated or uneducated men, nor between liberally minded men and reactionaries and bigots; but between men who before the Cross of Jesus Christ have had their hearts melted in wonder, praise and awe, and men who, confronted by the same Cross, 'care for none of these things.' On which side do you stand? Out of which experience are you going to preach?—C. E. Macartney.

THE MISSING LIGHTSHIP

Last night she lay in her place. The light at her masthead cast its rays brilliantly through the shadows, warning passing vessels to keep off. So far as was known, her anchor was all right; she was securely moored where no lighthouse could have outlived the storms which lashed the coast.

And that was only last night. This morning she is missing. Not a trace of the brilliant light piercing the gloom about her! No sign of the little ship! What has become of her?

Some time in the night she was carried out to sea by the heavy ice floes which bore down upon her. Did the anchor chain snap? Or did she drag her anchor in spite of everything the sailors on board could do? That is a story which may never be told, for the lightship is gone and the men of the sea look in vain for her kindly light.

The missing lightship!

Have you ever thought that somebody misses your light when it is not in its place? It is one of the fallacies fostered by the enemy of souls that we have no influence over those with whom we associate; that for himself every man must stand or fall; that nothing we can do will prevent it.

And yet, the very fact that you are where you are is proof that this is not true.

The lightship was not moored on that dangerous coast by chance. Those who sailed the seas had learned that it was not safe to venture into those waters without some light to guide them. The lightship was built and located just where she was so that sailors might take warning and be saved.

Many a pitfall lies in wait for those who go up and down this old world of ours. God knows it, and He has placed you and me just where we may by our influence and our Godly example help others to shun the road that leads to destruction.

The lighthouse out there was carried away by ice floes. It could not help itself. But you and I do not need to be washed away by the tides of sin ever sweeping about us. God has given us an anchor, "both sure and steadfast." If that anchor is ever lifted, so that we are borne out upon the sea of evil, our own hands will do it!

It is for us to stand fast in our places; to hold our light so bright and clear that all around may see and be kept off the rocks. Let it never be said of us, "They were swept away by evil! Their light has gone out!" God expects much of us! Those who love us believe we will be true! Let us say in our heart of hearts, "We will be true!" And then let us hold fast to what we have promised!—E. L. Vincent.

THEN SHALL I KNOW"

(I Corinthians 13:12)

Not till the loom is silent,
And the shuttles cease to fly,
Shall God unroll the canvas,
And explain the reason why
The dark threads are as needful,
In the Weaver's skilful hand,
As the threads of gold and silver
In the pattern He has planned.

AMISH MENNONITE CHURCHES.—(CONSERVATIVE)

Nearly all of the congregations here given have organized into a conference, but are not identified with the three annual Amish-Mennonite conferences. Some congregations are still separate from all organized conferences. They generally worship in meeting houses and have Sunday schools. They established and maintain the A. M. Children's Home near Grantsville, Md.

THE SOUL OR MONEY

"What is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?"—Luke 9:25.

A salesman on the train once told me I ought to be making money. I said:

"Listen to me! I was down in the Bureau of Engraving in Washington. They printed $20,000 worth of bills while I looked on. They have $20,000,000 on deposit, in case they don't print for a day or two. There are $40,000,000,000 on deposit in the banks of the United States, $900,000,000,000 in the world. You commence to figure $900,000,000,000! you are lost. Now," I said to this man, "take my old drunken self of the 19th day of January, 1897, and put $900,000,000,000 in one side of the scale and my soul in the other side of the scale. 'What would it profit a man if he gained the whole world and lost his own soul?' The life of a colored boy going down the alley is worth more than all the money in the world."—Melvin E. Trotter.

A MORNING PRAYER

Lord, send me to my work to-day
With quiet heart to cheer the way!
May those whose lives are touched by mine
Some beauty glimpse like peace of Thine,
Some blessing gain because I tread
The common way with uplift head!
Grant I may see Thee ever there,
Willing and glad my cares to share,
Helping my thought to soar, to find
The purpose of Thy wondrous mind:
And may I, though in humble place,
Work nobly, that by Thy good grace
The part Thou gavest me to do
From morn till eve my journey through
When set at last in Thy design
May fill its place in hue and line,
Be fashioned by the pattern He
Has set for men since Galilee!

—Gertrude B. Walker.

"Unless our lights shine for others, they will perish in themselves."

"HE WAS WOUNDED FOR OUR TRANSGRESSIONS"

Isaiah 53:5

The following lines were suggested by the story of a young person, religiously educated, to whom the text, "He was wounded for our transgressions," etc., after having been put aside when in health, came back with power on her death-bed. A friend said to her, "You suffer much, I fear."—"Yes," she said; "but," pointing to her hand, she said, "There is no nail there: He had the nails, I have the peace." Laying her hand on her brow, she said, "There are no thorns there: He had the thorns, I have the peace." Touching her side, she said, "There is no spear there: He had the spear, I have the peace."

"Through my hand no nail is driven,
On my brow no thorns are worn,
In my side there are no spear-wounds
Jesus all my sin hath borne.

"His the nails relentless driven,
Mine the peace by His procured;
For this soul with sin so burdened,
Freed in mercy, love allured.

"His the crown of thorns sharp-piercing.
Mine the peace for aye to last;
Mine the crown of fadeless glory
At His blessed feet to cast.

"His the spear, His dear side wounding,
Mine the peace with God thus made;
Sinless He, and yet sin-bearing,
All our sins on Him were laid.

"'Neath Thy Cross I stand and worship,—
Suffering man, yet conquering God.
Resting on Thy death-atonement,
Weary I lay down my load."

—W. L. Tucker.

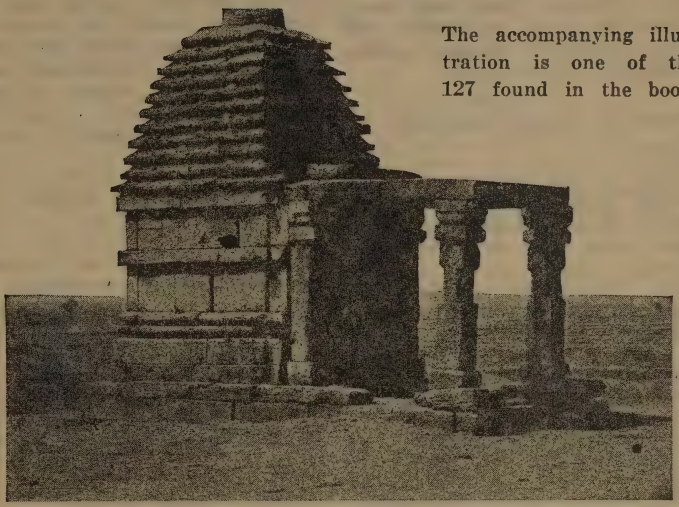
"The indwelling Lord makes one generous and sympathetic, for the message of the Gospel is from the heart of God to the heart of man through the Man, Christ Jesus."

OUR INDIA MISSIONARIES

have given us an account of the first quarter century of mission work done by the American Mennonite Mission in India which has been published in a book called

BUILDING ON THE ROCK

The accompanying illustration is one of the 127 found in the book.



An Abandoned Hindu Temple

Every chapter is of vital importance and will be read with interest. The illustrations will help the reader to form a correct idea of the work. The entire field of activity is presented in a way that cannot be obtained from any other source.

"As one interested in a special way in the mission activities of the Church, it affords me real joy to be permitted to call attention to the valuable contents of this volume."—J. S. Shoemaker.

It is printed in large type on special tinted paper. The illustrations are of the best quality obtainable and printed with a special half-tone process bringing out every detail. It contains 200 pages with 127 illustrations and several maps. Size 7 x 9 inches. Bound in stiff cloth with gold stampings.

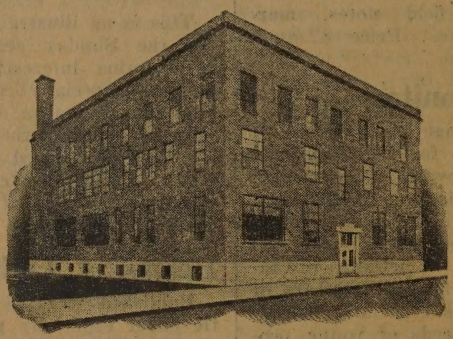
INVESTMENT and SERVICE

The careful investor is satisfied with a fair margin of profit. His greatest interest lies in the safety of his investment. If such an investment is coupled with an avenue of special service the returns are twofold. The Mennonite Publication Board is offering such an investment. In the erection of the new building accommodating the plant of the Mennonite Publishing House certain liabilities were assumed. The investment has been a blessing to the cause and Church. You are invited to share in it.

ANNUITIES

This form of donation is appealing to many of our people. A certain rate of interest is paid on the donation as long as the donor lives. After death the interest is discontinued and the principal is in the hands of the institution. It provides a safe investment. The interest is paid every six months. No state or inheritance tax can be collected from it. The donor becomes his own administrator of his estate.

The Gospel Herald and Christian Monitor Annuities are being continued. $30.00 pays for the Gospel Herald for a life time. $20.00 pays for the Christian Monitor.



DONATIONS

Further development of the work will be greatly enhanced by the assistance that is given in the form of donations. The possibilities for the spread of Gospel Truths are increasing as the years go by and the printing industry is developed. Millions of pages of printed matter are being circulated thru our present equipment. The possibility of increasing this circulation is ever before us. If you cannot make your donation now, a bequest in your will can easily be arranged. An opportunity for real service in the cause of the Master is open to those who have financial means at their command.

LOANS

Until the present liabilities are cancelled by either of the above forms or through the profits of the work of the Institution the loan department will be open to our people. While the original loans were sufficient to cover all indebtedness, there are constant changes through the calling of these loans made to the House. As these calls are satisfied, they are replaced with other loans. We thus have a sort of banking arrangement. Money is received in any amount not less than $100.00. Thirty days notice is required to withdraw it. The interest is paid annually. Notes are written for one year and automatically renew as the interest is paid.

DOCTRINES OF THE BIBLE

By Daniel Kauffman
and
D. H. Bender

An exhaustive treatise on the great doctrines of the Bible. It has been prepared under direction of three committees designated by Mennonite General Conference. The manuscript has been read and criticised by others as well. The results of this work can only be appreciated by a careful reading of the book.

The book is divided into eight chapters: God; Man; God and Man; Realms of Darkness; God's Plan of Salvation; The Church; Christian Life; The Future. The chapters are carefully subdivided and outlined. It gives a brief discussion of Scripture teachings as set forth in God's Word.

It contains about 650 pages. Printed on substantial paper and kept in a size and weight that will make it easily to handle for use.

Cloth	$ 2 00

The publication date on the above book had been announced for Feb. 1, 1928 but the work has been delayed. It will probably be ready for delivery by April 15, 1928. Orders will be received to be filled as soon as the books are finished.
